In This Issue: Holiday Greetings & Training Calendar

Dear Community Partners,

At this time of the year there is a saying that helps guide me as I look forward to a new year.

"Take time to gather up your past so that you will be able to draw from your experiences and invest them in the future." Author Unknown.

Our collective experiences here at CMCHC tell us that while there have been many ups and downs, gains and losses, highlights and lowlights, there is no lack of dedication, commitment and vision for improving the lives of many in central MA.

Throughout 2007 we have worked with many of you in various capacities: strategizing on grants, youth development, relationship building, substance abuse prevention, providing technical assistance, ordering your recommendations for our library, training, the list can go on. Our sole focus is to be of service to you and the communities you serve.

Thank you for allowing us that honor and we look forward to continuing our relationship with you in 2008.

Whatever your tradition calls for this holiday season - We here at the Central Massachusetts Center for Healthy Communities wish you a safe and reflective time with family and friends.

E. Vicente Sanabria
